

CHARACTERISTICS OF EUXTON PARISH COUNCIL

COUNCIL

Euxton Parish Council comprises of 18 Parish councillors whose terms of office expire to make way for the elections every fourth year. The number of Councillors for each Parish is decided by the Electoral Committee.

SIZE & POPULATION

Euxton is the second largest parish council in the Borough of Chorley - and still growing. It has the largest number of parish councillor seats of all the Chorley parishes and a population of 8,318 with an electorate of 7,298 (population figures from the 2001 Census (so will be much higher than this now) and electorate at 1 July 2009).

AREAS & COUNCILLORS

Euxton Parish Council is made up of representatives from three parish areas which are the North West which has 8 Parish Councillor seats, Euxton North East with 2 and Euxton South which also has 8 Councillor places.

North West, Runshaw Lane, Greenside estate roads, parts of Firbank and Brookside, Cedar and surrounding Avenues, School Lane, part of Wigan Road to Chapel Brook, Euxton Lane including Cherryfields and Canonswood estates.

The North East area comprises Whinney and Pear Tree Lanes, Buckshaw Village, Badgers Walk and Brook House Grove.

The South area covers, Dawbers Lane, Wigan Road south of Chapel Brook, Church Walk and Casterton, Balshaw Lane and two estates each side.