1. Apologies Cllr B Leyden, A Dilworth, A Platt, S Wellerd
2. Declarations of Interest - no declarations
3. Consideration of information following the Quarry decision

Council considered whether there were firm, viable and evidential grounds to mount a High Court challenge against the Planning Inspector which highlights a flaw or breach of law in his decision making process, when he considered all the details of the recent Planning Inquiry Appeal.

Councillors had all considered the advice supplied to the Council from a Solicitor and a Barrister.

No subjects had been supplied to the Clerk to research and none brought forward at the meeting.

There being no further general business the Chairman declared the meeting closed.
